Holiday Dance for Greenwich Day Nursery

To Be Held at Field Club Next Friday Night—Social Notes.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. GREENWICH, Conn., Dec. 17.—The annual holiday dance will be given by the Junior League of the Greenwich Day Nursery at the Field Club here on next Friday evening. There will be special decorations and other attractive features. Miss Katherine Lauder, daughter of Mrs. George Lauder, Jr., is chairman of the dance committee. The other members of the committee are Miss Gwendolyn Gray, Mrs. George Griswold, Mrs. Ashley R. Pomeroy and Miss Gladys Armstrong.

A largely attended supper and dance was held at the Field Club to-night. Many of the members gave dinner parties preceding the dance. A number of dinners and dances are being planned for Christmas week at the club. Trap shooting at the club traps is proving more popular than ever this winter.

Mrs. W. L. Edwards of Riverside has arranged to give a Christmas dinner and tree for fifteen disabled soldiers still in hospitals at the new Riverside Civic Center in the Walden House in Riverside.

The Riverside Garden Club held a meeting at their temporary civic center in the Walden House on Monday evening, when Mr. Walter C. Philby, State Forester, gave an illustrated talk on "Highway Trees and State Parks in Connecticut."

Mr. Ralph E. Brush of Greenwich also spoke from the standpoint of the committee of the Chamber of Commerce for "Town Beautification."

Mrs. George W. Hubbell, Capt. George W. Hubbell, Jr., and Mrs. Hubbell Rowland of East Putnam avenue have moved to 125 East Thirty-fourth street, New York, for the winter.

Mrs. Joseph Healey and her daughter, Miss Healey, who are stopping at the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York, were the guests of Mrs. Anna May Lillie of the Shore road over Sunday.

Yesterday afternoon Miss Edith Wynne Mathison appeared before the Woman's Club in readiness for "Shakespeare's Heroines" at the Havemeyer Auditorium.

The Fairfield Players, a new dramatic organization formed by prominent local amateurs of the town, will give their initial performance early in January. Mrs. Mary Hill Brown of New York will coach the members of the cast.

Mrs. J. W. Monteth of the Maples has gone to Naples and Genoa, to remain several months.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Vanderhoof and Miss Elizabeth Vincent are stopping at the Hotel Chatham, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their home on Mark's road, Sound Beach, on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Dommerich and Alexander L. Dommerich, Jr., have returned from Europe to their home on Stanwich road.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Buckham and Miss Julia Stanley, who are at the Pickwick Arms Hotel, expect to locate in Greenwich early next week. Mrs. Henry Stuart Fleming and Miss Elizabeth Fleming, the latter a student at Rosemary Hall School, are also registered at the Arms.

Mrs. George M. Pynchon and daughter, Miss Beatrice Pynchon, and Miss Marie Leary have moved to 910 Fifth avenue, New York, from Field Point Park.

Many prominent women of the town were interested in an unusual exhibit and sale of Ukrainian handiwork at the Edgewood School on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Grace Marks of Willowmere, Sound Beach, has gone to Santa Ana, Cal., to pass the winter with her cousin, Miss Grace Marks.

Last evening the Greenwich Teachers' Association held a dance at the Pickwick Arms. Miss Bertha Boles is president of the association.
